MOST WONDERFUL

Of All Reed Instruments.

A "Vocalion" was recently sold to this church after sharp competition with other leading organs. When you have listened to the beautiful and pipe-like tone quality of the "Vocalion" you will at once admit its superiority over all other REED ORGANS. In fact it has NO PEER in SWEETNESS and VOLUME of tone.

"THE VOCALION" COSTS LESS THAN ONE-THIRD of the cost of a pipe organ of equal size.
Possibly your church NEEDS A NEW ORGAN. Send to me for catalogue, prices, terms, &c., regarding the "Vocalion."

to carriages and driven to the battlefield, where they had an excellent view of a very spirited sham battle. From the battlefield they went to the auditorium, where an enormous crowd had gathered to hear the Senator's speech.

THE CEREMONIES. The Rev. Edward Mack opened the ceremonies with an invocation. After the reading of the Mecklenburg declaration of independence Senator Hill was introduced. His address ence Senator Hill was introduced. His address was distinctly historical and patriotic. All reference to current political events was carefully avoided. The story, he said, was a simple one, briefly told.

"Thirteen months before the memorable action of the Continental Congress the patriotic citizens of this county of Mecklenburg, in this grand old state of North Carolina, restless under the yoke of oppression, imbued with the spirit of self-government, assembled together at the court house and bravely and solemnly resolved that they were a free and independendent people and that the political bands which had bound them to the mother country were dissolved. Their decisive and daring action gave to North Carolina the proud laring action gave to North Carolina the proud distinction which it has ever since enjoyed of having been the first of all colonies to sound the toesin of revolution and to assert the right independence.

"The Mecklenburg declaration was momen "The Meckienburg declaration was momentous in its consequences because it was the inception of the successful revolution. It was never retracted. That it largely influenced the subsequent similar action of the united colonies cannot stand of needed proof.

"The exercises of this day, besides refreshing of recolutionary memories and our recollection of revolutionary memories and stirring our hearts with patriotic pride, serve a strring our hearts with patriotic pride, serve a better purpose in impressing a sense of the responsibilities and duties of citizenship.
